Re:- grant of special rates of daily allce and Conveyance allce to DTS & Addl DTS

Serial No.

Letter no A1-1132/44-45 dt 7.11.1946 from the Director of Food Supplies, requesting sanction for the grant of special rates of daily allowance and Conveyance allowance to himself and the Additional Director for their tours outside the State:

In his previous letter no A1-1132/44-45 dt 9.6.46 the D.T.S. had suggested the grant of the following special rates of allowances to himself and the Addl D.T.S for their tours outside the State:—

Daily allce } Rs. 20/- per day of halt in Bombay, Delhi and Calcutta and Rs. 15/- per day of halt in other places.

outside the State.

Conveyance allce } Rs. 15/- per day of halt in Bombay Delhi and Calcutta and Rs. 10/- per day of halt in other places. outside the State.

2) As the general order re. T.A. to the officers and staff of the Food Supplies Dept. for their tours outside the State covered the question re: D.T.S and Addl. D.T.S also the matter was not pursued further — vide para 10 of note in Deposit paper no 371-44. Moreover the Financial Dept was not in favour of the above proposal — vide para 6 of note in Deposit no 371-44.

3) The D.T.S has now represented (i) that in Cir. No. Sd 1784-86/A 204-44-S dt 16/17.8.46 (Flag L) — no special rates have been sanctioned for the journeys to be made by him or the Additional D.T.S. outside the State (ii) that the rates contemplated in the above Cir. dated 16/17.8.46 are not at all adequate and that at these rates they would be out of pocket for every trip they might have to make to Bombay or Delhi.

He has therefore requested orders re: special rates of daily allowance and

10) The D.T.S. has again raised the point with reference to the journeys performed by D.T.S. & Asstt D.T.S. It is of course true that even the rates issued vide the C.O. of 16/17-8-46 are not adequate. Each time the D.T.S. or the Asstt D.T.S. go to Karachi etc., they are out of pocket as their bare expenses are!
